LONDON PROMUSICA EDITION

www.londonpromusica.com

London Pro Musica Edition now has the largest list of Renaissance and Early Baroque music in practical editions that can be found anywhere in the world.

Most of the music in our catalogue is secular music from about 1450-1650. A substantial proportion is purely instrumental music, and works are generally chosen that are suitable for several types of Renaissance instruments — practically all works are suitable for recorders, for instance. Our list is particularly strong in dance music: our Early Dance Music is getting quite close to one of its main aims, that of publishing all the worthwhile Renaissance polyphonic dance music.

One of our most innovative projects is the Ricercate e Passaggi series, which is bringing together most of the material from the late Renaissance books of diminutions (divisions). There is no better way of learning how to improvise divisions in a convincing style than by working through this series.

A recent development is the A due cori series, which focuses on polychoral music (not necessarily Italian) from the late Renaissance. The series will include all the worthwhile instrumental pieces of this type (excluding the Gabrielis, who now have their own series), together with selected vocal pieces. So far more than 60 titles have been printed.

If by some chance you are not familiar with our editions, you will find them generously supplied with necessary background information.

Although some scholarship goes into our editions, they are planned very much from the practical point of view. Particular attention is paid to the layout, so as to avoid the awkward turnovers that make so many editions of early music difficult to use.

THE ATTAINGNANT DANCEPRINTS

This is a complete edition in seven volumes of the collections of dances for instrumental ensemble published by Pierre Attaingnant of Paris between 1529 and 1557. Our edition of this series, which we originally published in the 1970s, has now been extensively revised, and a detailed commentary provided for each volume. All pieces are playable on recorders (ATTB or SATB), viols (TrTTB), violin family (VnVaVaVc), shawms, cornett and trombones, and other instrumental combinations. All titles published as playing scores only

- AD1 PIERRE ATTAINGNANT, Neuf Basse dances deux branles, vingt et cinq pavennes avec quinze gaillardes (1530) for four instruments. Attaingnant's first dance book contains a number of highly distinctive Italian pieces, as well as a range of French ones. Our volume also contains the dances from Six Gaillardes et six Pavanes, likewise originally published in 1530. €8.50
- AD2 PIERRE ATTAINGNANT, Second Livre de Dancieries (1547) for four instruments. This is probably the most varied of the Attaingnant books, containing basse dances, tourdions, branles, pavanes and gaillards. €7.00
- AD3 CLAUDE GERVAISE, Troisieme Livre de Dancieries (1557) for four instruments (a few pieces in five parts). Contains 42 dances (pavanes, gaillards, branles, allemandes, etc.). €6.00
- AD4 CLAUDE GERVAISE, Quart Livre de Dancieries (1550) for four instruments. This volume is distinguished by a number of particularly elegant pavanes based on chansons of the period. €6.00
- AD5 CLAUDE GERVAISE, Cinquiesme Livre de Dancieries (1550) for four instruments. This volume consists of a large number of branles of many different varieties, all very lively pieces. €6.00
- AD6 CLAUDE GERVAISE, Sixieme Livre de Dancieries (1555) for four instruments. Contains one of the most attractive versions of the Passamezzo antico, as well as some unusual triple-time branles. €6.00
- AD7 ETIENNE DU TERTRE, Septieme Livre de Dancieries (1557). Unfortunately this volume has survived incomplete. Our edition presents the 27 surviving dances. €5.00

A DUE CORI

Polychoral Music c. 1600

This series is making available in modest editions most of the instrumental double choir pieces from the time, plus many vocal ones. This music is becoming increasingly popular for performance material as well as for relatively large groups of informal musicians. All titles come basically as score and parts, with additional parts available separately; inner parts in both string and wind clefs. For singers, sets of scores of the motets may be purchased, at a remarkably reasonable cost.

- ADC1 LODOVICO GROSSI DA VIADANA, La Bolognese for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB or ATTB x 2). A witty playful piece of moderate difficulty. €6.00
- ADC2 RUGGIER TROFEO, Canzon Decimasettima for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB x 2). A substantial, but not especially difficult piece with good antiphonal effects. €7.00
- ADC2a Set of parts transposed down a 4th. €4.00
- ADC3 GIOVANNI BATTISTA GRILLO, Canzon Secunda for 8 instruments in 2 choirs (high and low). A very strong piece that makes the most of the contrast between the two choirs. €7.00
- ADC4 HANS LEO HASSLER, Angelus Domini Descendit for 8 voices or instruments in 2 choirs (high and medium). €6.00
- ADC5 HANS LEO HASSLER, Laudate Dominum for 8 voices or instruments in 2 choirs (high and low) A strong, extrovert work. €6.00
- ADC6 GIOVANNI PRIULI, Sonata Prima for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (STTB range). Priuli is a real discovery; this piece is full of expressive passages. €6.00
- ADC7 FLORIANO CANALI, La Canobbia for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB or ATTB). A cheerful, light-hearted piece. €5.50
- ADC8 CESARIO GUSSAGO, La Porcellaga for 8 instruments in 2 choirs (high and low). €5.50
- ADC9 GIACOMO FILIPPO BIUMI, Canzon Decimasettima for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB range) A lively piece, with very diverting antiphonal effects. €8.00
- ADC9a Set of transposed parts (ATTBx2) for above €3.00
- ADC10 FLORIANO CANALI, La Bevilacqua for 8 instruments in 2 choirs (SAAT x 2). A solemn, elegant piece of medium difficulty. €5.50
- ADC10a Set of transposed parts (SATBx2) for above €3.00
- ADC11 ORAZIO VECCHI, Amor è foco for 7 voices or instruments in 2 choirs (SST + ATTB). An original work, with exciting rhythmic effects. It appears to be the most popular in our series. €5.50
- ADC12 GIOVANNI PRIULI, Canzone quarta for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB). Another original piece from this neglected genius; it has a bold opening idea and gets even better. €6.00
- ADC13 GIOVANNI GABRIELI, Quis ist iste for 10 voices or instruments in 2 choirs (SSATB + ATTB). A typically rich and colourful work. €9.00
- ADC14 FRANCESCO ROVIGO, Canzon Decimaottava for 8 instruments in two equal choirs (SSAT). One of our favourites, with some of the most playful antiphonal effects in the repertoire. €6.00
- ADC14a Set of transposed parts for above (SATBx2) €3.00
- ADC15 LODOVICO GROSSI DA VIADANA, La Bresciana for 8 instr. in 2 choirs (SSAT + ATTB). A lively number with some written-out ornaments in the upper parts. €6.00
- ADC16 GIOVANNI PRIULI, Canzone Quinta for 8 instruments in 2 equal choirs (SATB) €6.00

- ADC17 GIOVANNI BATTISTA GRILLO, Canzon Terza for 8 instruments in high and low choirs (SATB + TTBB). Another very strong piece, which pits slow expressive writing in the low choir against divisions in the top parts. €7.00

THE ART OF THE NETHERLANDERS

An astonishing number of exceptionally talented musicians were born in the Low Countries around the middle of the fifteenth century, reaching artistic maturity about 1470-80. Josquin des Prés, Heinrich Isaac, Pierre de la Rue, Jacob Obrecht, Alexander Agricola are just a few of the outstanding names from this very productive period, the music of which is characterised by a remarkable degree of rhythmic subtlety.

- AN1 HEINRICH ISAAC, A la Bataglia, for four instruments. An extended work, involving some exciting rhythmic writing. This is a revised edition which incorporates the text found in one of the sources. The new set of parts are printed both at the original pitch, and also a fifth higher, for brighter effect. Score and parts €5.00
- AN2 Four Instrumental Pieces of the late fifteenth century, for four recorders (ATTB) or viols/rebecs. This selection contains two anonymous settings of the famous basse danse La Spagna, a magnificent arrangement by Pierre de la Rue of Ma bouche rit, and an attractive fantasy. Score and parts €7.50
- AN3 Seven Instrumental Pieces from Petrucci's Canti C (1504), for three instruments ATB. Contains an anonymous La Spagna setting (the only hitherto unpublished ensemble version), T'Andermaken arrangements by Lapidida and Brumel, and other fascinating pieces, all written in a very lively rhythmic style. Suitable for recorders, viols, rebecs, lutes, etc. Score and parts €8.50

- AN6 JOSQUIN DES PRÉS, Seven Secular Pieces, for four voices or instruments ATTB. A little volume that explores the lighter side of this central figure of Renaissance music. Suitable for recorders, viols, and several other types of instruments. Score only €4.50
- AN7 JOSQUIN DES PRÉS, Twelve Pieces for three voices or instruments. Another volume that demonstrates the versatility of the great master. Score only €7.00
- AN8 JOSQUIN DES PRÉS, Four Chansons for five voices or instruments. Includes Douleur me bat and the wonderful Plaine de duell. Score and parts €5.50

- AN10 JACOB OBRECHT, J'ay pris amours, for four instruments. This is a long and beautiful setting of one of the most successful songs of its time. Excellent for recorders or viols. Score and parts €5.00

- AN11 HEINRICH ISAAC, Seventeen Pieces for voices or instruments. This selection has been made to demonstrate Isaac's extraordinary versatility; there are French chansons rustiques, German Tenorlieder, carnival songs, a witty Italian quodlibet, and various instrumental pieces. Score only €7.00

CHAMBER MUSIC OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY

The seventeenth century, particularly the first few decades, was a time of great creativity in music. A large amount of challenging, experimental and virtuosic music was produced during this time, especially in Italy, by such musicians as Dario Castello, Francesco Turini, Biagio Marini, Giovanni Battista Buonamente and others.

All titles published as score and parts.

- CS1 GIOVANNI BATTISTA RICCIO, Canzone (1620-1), for recorder (violin, cornetto) and continuo. This is one of the very few early seventeenth-century pieces to actually specify recorder. €5.00
- CS2 GIOVANNI BATTISTA RICCIO, Canzone (1612) for two recorders (violins, cornetts) and continuo. Like the above piece, originally scored for recorders. €4.50
- CS3 GIOVANNI BATTISTA RICCIO, *Two Canzoni for recorder, bass instrument (dulcian, trombone, cello, bassoon) and continuo. In one of these pieces fagotto (i.e. dulcian) is specified for the lower part. €5.00
- CS4 SALAMONE ROSSI, *Four Sonatas from the Quarto Libro for two high instruments and continuo. This selection contains two slow expressive pieces, and two lively ones based on dance tunes, including the famous Bergamasca. €6.00

- CS8 GIOVANNI PAOLO CIMA, Two Sonatas (1610) for high instrument, bass instrument and continuo. These are not only the earliest sonatas of their kind, but they are among the finest. The musical interest is harmonic and melodic, rather than just in figuration. €5.50
- CS9 FRANCESCO TURINI, *Sonata sopra Tanto tempo hormai for two high instruments, bass instrument and continuo. A dazzling set of variations. €5.50
- CS10 FRANCESCO TURINI, *Sonata for two high instruments and continuo. This beautiful piece is a kind of dialogue, with each instrument having expressive solo passages in turn, and coming together in the middle. €5.00

EARLY DANCE MUSIC

In this series we aim to gather together all the worthwhile ensemble dance music of the Renaissance, and all the monophonic medieval dance music, together with a few seventeenth-century collections. The first three volumes of the series are complete editions of the two main sources for sixteenth-century Italian dance music. Later volumes will cover forms such as the Hoftanz, and many other dances for up to six instruments from the Hessen books of 1555.

- DM1 Italian dances of the early sixteenth century, for four instruments. Complete edition of the unique collection of dances in MS Mus. 1503h of the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek in Munich. Score only €5.50
- DM2-3 Forty-four Dances of the Sixteenth Century, instruments. (two volumes) Complete edition of the Royal App. 59-62 MS in the British Library, which is undoubtedly the main source of Italian dance music of this period. Score only ea. €5.50
- DM4 Italian Dances from the Hessen Books (1555), for six instruments. I €7.00
- DM5-6 GASPARO ZANETTI, il Scolaro (1645), for four instruments (two volumes) The major source for Italian dance music of around 1600, including pieces featured in Negri's Le Gratie d'Amore. - DM7 JEAN D'ESTRÉES, Premier Livre de Danseries (1559) for four instruments. The missing inner parts have been restored in this interesting collection, of which only the outer parts survive. D'Estrées was a shawm player in the court wind band in Paris. Score only €7.00

ENGLISH INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC c. 1600

While some of the fine English music of this period is suitable only for viols, there is plenty which is written in a style that makes sense on all kinds of instruments, and this is what we are producing in this series.

- EM1 CLEMENT WOODCOCK, "Browning" Fantasy for five viols (TrTrTTB) or recorders (SATTB). Score and parts €3.50
- EM2 Twenty-one Masque Dances, for soprano instrument (violin, treble viol, recorder, cornetto) and continuo. These pieces are taken from MS 10444 of the British Library, used in conjunction with a number of other sources. Many of the pieces were obviously very popular at the time, to judge from the large number of surviving settings of some of them. Score and parts €8.00
- EM3 JOHN ADSON, Courtly Masquing Ayres (1621), Volume I, for five instruments (violins, viols, recorders). Score and parts €7.50
- EM4 JOHN ADSON, Courtly Masquing Ayres (1621), Volume II, for five instruments. Score and parts €7.50
- EM5 JOHN ADSON, Courtly Masquing Ayres (1621), Volume III, for six instruments. Score and parts €7.50
- EM6 Twenty-five Masque Dances for soprano instrument (recorder, violin, cornetto) and continuo. More music from the same source as EM2, including some of the more dramatic pieces. Score and parts €8.00
- EM7 PETER PHILIPS, Pavan "Passamezzo" for six instruments. This masterpiece is a set of six variations on the traditional ground. Up to now it has not been available complete in a practical edition. Score and parts €7.50
- EM8 HUGH ASHTON, Hugh Ashton's Maske for three or four instruments. This is a quite extraordinary piece, unlike anything else that has come down to us. Based on a simple ground bass, the beauty and invention of the quite complex added parts makes it a remarkably satisfying piece to play. It was probably written originally in three parts, so the fourth part is optional. Score and parts €5.00
- EM9 Anonymous (c. 1570), In nomine for six instruments. This piece differs radically from the normal In nomine settings. For one thing it is about three times as long. But it is the variation in texture, and rhythmic variety, that marks it out from the others. Very good on wind instruments. Score and parts €5.50
- EM10 WILLIAM BYRD, The Four-part Consort Music for four instruments. Includes all the surviving 4-part material by this composer. Score and parts €9.00
- EM11 ALFONSO FERRABOSCO, 9 Pavans for five instruments Score only €5.00
- EM12 PETER PHILIPS, Three Trios from Institution Harmonique, for three instruments. Score and parts €5.50
- EM13 ROBERT PARSONS, The Song called Trumpets for six instruments. Score and parts €4.50
- EM14 JOHN BALDWYN, Two Pieces for three instruments (Coocow as I me walked, and Browning). Score and parts €5.00
- EM15 JOHN TAVERNER, Quemadmodum, for six instruments. Score and parts €5.00

- EM16 JAMES HARDING, Two Fantasies for four instruments. Score and parts, €5.00

- EM21 WILLIAM BYRD, The Five-Part Consort Music, Vol. I: the Fantasies Score and parts €11.00
- EM22 WILLIAM BYRD, The Five Part Consort Music, Vol. II: The In Nomines + Pavan and Galliard Score and parts €8.00
- EM23 JOHN COPERARIO, The Six-part Consorts, vol. I. Score and parts €8.00
- EM24 JOHN COPERARIO, The Six-part Consorts, vol. II Score and parts €8.00

GERMAN INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC c. 1600

This series explores the wealth of German instrumental music around the turn of the seventeenth century, much of which is in five or more parts. The repertoire of this very active period of German musical history is quite varied, ranging from simple "Polish" dances to more sophisticated pavanes and galliards and elaborate canzonas and fantasies.

- GM1 Paul Lütkehan, Fantasia "Innsbruck, ich muss dich lassen" (1597), for five instruments. Score and parts €3.00

- GM3 ALEXANDER OROLOGIO, Twelve Intradas (1597) for six instruments. Orologio, an Italian cornetto- and trumpet-player who spent his working life in Germany, was the first composer to publish intradas of the type that was cultivated by many musicians of the period. THE ITALIAN MADRIGAL

From about 1520 until the end of the sixteenth century the madrigal was the focus of all that was new and exciting in Italian music, and the new styles and techniques developed in this form were imitated in many countries. Our series will include music by Arcadelt, Verdelot, Festa, Ruffo, Rore, Lassus, and others.

- MA1 JACQUES ARCADELT, Eight Madrigals, for four voices or instruments. Arcadelt's first book of madrigals, from which most of our pieces are taken, was probably the most widely-known madrigal collection of the period. Score only €5.00
- MA2 COSTANZO FESTA, Fifteen Madrigals, for three voices or instruments. Festa, one of the first important madrigal composers, was really the only one to cultivate three-part writing to any extent. He was particularly adept at closely-spaced textures. Score only €5.50
- MA3 PHILIPPE VERDELLOT, Twenty-two Madrigals, for four voices or instruments. This volume contains all the pieces that appeared arranged for lute in the Intavolatura de li Madrigali di Verdelotto da cantare et sonare nell'auto (Venice, 1536), which is published complete in our RM3. Verdelot was much respected during his lifetime for his ability to express the different moods of his texts, and so it is no surprise to find here an outstanding collection of highly varied pieces. Score only €8.50
- MA4 PHILIPPE VERDELLOT, Five Madrigals for five voices or instruments. Score and parts IN PREPARATION
- MA10 ROLAND DE LASSUS, Thirteen Villanelle, for four voices or instruments. These pieces of Lassus are probably the outstanding examples of the genre. They range from quite simple settings such as Madonna mia, pietà to longer, wittier pieces like Parch' hai lasciato. Score only €5.50

MUSICA PRACTICA

This new series takes advantage of new technology, to produce sets of sets and parts of major collections that have otherwise been available only in either scholarly tomes or small selections. In the case of large collections, like the Tye, Brade and Schein, the parts have their own covers and are available separately. We are also intending to release many of the pieces individually in our other series..

MP1 CHRISTOPHER TYE, Complete Consort Music, for 3-5 instruments. Tye is the only English composer of the generation before the great late-sixteenth centuries musicians to have composed instrumental music in any quantity. These pieces are full of surprises and felicitous melodic touches.

RENAISSANCE CHANSONS

This series explores the wealth of French secular vocal music of the sixteenth century. Although we use the term “vocal”, it must be remembered that chansons were often performed instrumentally during this period. In fact in France there was virtually no purely instrumental music (except for lute and keyboard music, and dance music) published during the Renaissance. Chansons were particularly popular for instrumental use in Italy. It was out of this that the instrumental canzon da sonar of musicians like Maschera, Merulo and the Gabriellis developed. Many of these have been out of a print for a time, but we expect the new, revised editions to be available by the end of the year

SCORES ONLY UNLESS INDICATED

- PC1 PIERRE ATTAINGNANT, Fourteen Chansons (1533) for recorders (ATTB) or voices. In 1533 Attaignant published two collections consisting of chansons for which recorders or flutes (or both) were specified. Our volume contains all those pieces from the second collection for recorders, as well as those for recorders or flutes. €7.00
- PC2 PIERRE DE MANCHICOURT, Nine Chansons, for voices or instruments SATB. €5.00
- PC3 CLAUDIN DE SERMISY, Twenty Chansons for four voices or instruments ATTB. Claudin was the greatest composer of the classical “Parisian” chansons. His pieces are simple but exquisite. €7.00
- PC4 CLAUDIN DE SERMISY, Fifteen Chansons for four voices or instruments SATB. €5.50
- PC6 THOMAS CRECQUILLON, Fourteen Chansons for four voices or instruments ATTB. Crecquillon was one of the most widely-respected chanson composers of his time. He was a remarkable contrapuntalist, to the extent that each part in his music is a joy to perform. €7.50
- PC7 THOMAS CRECQUILLON, Five-part Chansons. These rather more substantial pieces are among the composer’s finest. Available either as score and parts, or a set of 5 scores. IN PREPARATION
- PC8 THOMAS CRECQUILLON, Twelve Chansons for three voices or instruments. Some three-part chansons of this time are rather routine arrangements of four-part pieces, but Crecquillon’s are little masterpieces in their own right. They are wonderfully satisfying to play on recorders or flutes €6.00.
- PC9 Seven Chansons for three equal voices or instruments. Works by Mouton, Brumel, Crecquillon, Claudin de Sermisy and others. €4.50
- PC10 Thirty Chansons for three voices or instruments, from Pierre Attaignant’s Quarante e deux chansons musicales a troys parties of 1529. They are eminently suitable for recorders, flutes, viols or other soft instruments. €7.00
- PC11 ROQUELAY + HESDIN, Eight Chansons, for four voices or instruments SATB. Particularly attractive are Roquelay’s Tabonne grace, and Hesdin’s S’il est a ma poste. €5.00
- PC12 ADRIAN WILLAERT, Thirteen Chansons for three voices or instruments. These lively and inventive pieces are taken from Antico’s La Couronne et Fleur des chansons a troys, published in Venice in 1536. They are mostly skilful arrangements of popular melodies of the day. €5.50
- PC13 ADRIAN WILLAERT, Five-part Chansons. These pieces gave the composer an opportunity to display his Josquin-like contrapuntal gifts. Available as score and parts or sets of scores. IN PREPARATION

- PC18 CLAUDE LE JEUNE, Six-part Chansons. Available either as score and parts, or as a set of 6 scores. IN PREPARATION
- PC20 Chansons Rustiques of the Renaissance, Volume I, for three voices or instruments. This is the first volume of a project that will gather together the best of the this important repertoire, essentially consisting of settings of popular tunes, mostly around 1500. Score only IN PREPARATION

THE RENAISSANCE BAND

A series of music for Renaissance wind instruments, in which the ranges of the parts suit a range of different wind instruments (nos. 1-10 even fit on crumhorns, though this will not necessarily be true of later titles) and is therefore playable on recorders, cornetts and trombones, dulcians, shawms and other wind instruments of the period.

- RB1 PETRUS ALAMIRE, T' Andernaken, for five instruments ATTBB. This piece, originally thought to be anonymous, is one of the very few surviving pieces that actually specify crumhorns in the source. This revised edition now includes an additional set of parts up a fifth. Score and parts €3.50
- RB2 Seven Double Canons (c. 1500) for four voices or instruments, by Josquin, Mouton, Willaert, etc. Mainly based on popular tunes of the time, these are clever and lively little pieces. Score only €4.50
- RB3 JOSQUIN DES PRÉS, La Spagna for five instruments ATTBB. Of all the surviving settings of this famous tune, this is undoubtedly the finest. Our revised edition includes two sets of parts, one at the original pitch, one up a fifth. Score and parts €5.00
- RB4 Twelve Chansons (c. 1530) for four voices or crumhorns (recorders) ATTB. This is a selection of French pieces that have been transposed down a fourth or a fifth (as Renaissance musicians would have done) to bring them within the comfortable range of crumhorns, but good also on sackbuts, curtals, or low recorders Score only €4.50
- RB6 MICHAEL PRAETORIUS AND VALENTIN HAUSSMANN, Dances for five instruments. Praetorius' arrangements of elegant French dances contrast nicely with Haussmann's solid German and Polish dances. Score only €4.50
- RB7 Madrigals and Villanelle for three voices or instruments. This little anthology contains villanelle by Nola, Lando and Todino, as well as madrigals by Festa, Fogliano and Ruffo. Score only €4.50
- RB8 German Songs of the Early Sixteenth Century for four instruments ATTB. This anthology of works by Othmayr, Senfl, Hofhaimer, Kugelman and others, consists mostly of tenor songs that work well either with a single voice and instruments, or purely instrumentally. Score only €5.50
- RB9 PIERRE MOULU, Two Chansons for six voices or instruments. Contains two satisfying polyphonic settings, En despit des faulx mesdisans, and La rousé du mois de May. Score and parts €5.50
- RB10 FRANCESCO CORTECCIA, Two Madrigals for six voices or instruments. One of these, Guardan' almo pastore was originally performed by crumhorns—or similar instruments—in the Florentine Intermedi of 1539. Score and parts €5.50
- RB11 MORITZ LANDGRAF OF HESSEN, The Kassel Pavan Collection, Volume I for five instruments. The Kassel manuscript contains a collection of pavans in different styles. It is also remarkable in having some original indications of instrumentation, all for wind instruments. Score only €7.50
- RB12 MORITZ LANDGRAF OF HESSEN, The Kassel Pavan Collection, Volume II for five instruments. This part of the collection includes some English pavanes with titles such as "The Shooting of the Guns" Score only IN PREPARATION
- RB13 Quattro Sonate a 5 Bombardi. These early seventeenth century sonatas from a manuscript in Kassel are solemn, impressive pieces for 5 large shawms, but they can also be played on sackbuts, curtals, etc. Score and parts €6.00
- RB14 Music from the Copenhagen Wind MS, Vol. I: Pieces in 6 parts by Jorgen Presten and others. Score and parts. IN PREPARATION

- RB15 Music from the Copenhagen Wind MS, Vol II: Pieces in 7 parts by Presten and others. Score and parts. IN PREPARATION

RICERCATE E PASSAGGI

Improvisation and ornamentation,

This series presents, in a highly practical format, most of the really worthwhile material from the treatises of Girolamo Dalla Casa (1584), Giovanni Bassano (1585/1591), Richardo Rogniono (1592), Francesco Rognoni (1620), Vincenzo Bonizzi (1626), Aurelio Virgiliano and others. The emphasis is on providing ricercate and other examples of decorated music that can be used in a number of different ways and with various instrumental combinations.

- REP1 AURELIO VIRGILIANO, Thirteen Ricercate from *Il Dolcimelo for solo instrument (cornetto, recorder, flute, violin, etc.). Virgiliano's ricercars are long, improvisatory pieces, calling for quite a fluent technique. They provide what is almost certainly the most useful practice material for late sixteenth-century music. Our edition presents most of the pieces at two different pitches, in order to bring the music within the compass of the widest possible range of instruments. €12.00
- REP3 GIROLAMO DALLA CASA and GIOVANNI BASSANO, Divisions on Chansons I, for soprano instrument (recorder, cornetto, violin, etc.) and continuo. These pieces are based on five well-known chansons of the mid-sixteenth century: Frais et gaillard, Ung gay bergier, Petit Jacquet, Petite fleur coincte et jolye and Alix avoit aus dens la malerage. Our edition includes a short score for keyboard, and a separate alternative lute part. One copy of the companion issue, containing the five original chansons, is also provided. Score and parts €12.00
- REP3a Five Chansons of the mid-sixteenth century, for four voices or instruments. Companion to the above, containing the four original chansons. Score only €3.00

Our edition includes a short score for keyboard, a separate lute part, and a copy of the companion issue containing the original madrigals. Score and parts €11.00
- REP4a CIPRIANO DA RORE, Five Madrigals for 4 voices. Rore (1516-1565) was the most original madrigal composer of his generation. The five pieces are Ancor che col partire, Ben qui si mostra'l ciel, Come havran fin, Non gemme non fin oro and Qual è più grand' o Amore. Score only €3.00
- REP5 GIROLAMO DALLA CASA AND GIOVANNI BASSANO, Divisions on Chansons II, for soprano instrument and continuo. RENAISSANCE MUSIC PRINTS

This series presents complete editions of a number of sixteenth-century collections that are consistently interesting enough to justify this approach. Several of the prints that will appear are collections, such as Willaert's voice-and-lute settings of Verdelot madrigals, that are the only surviving examples of their kind.

RM1-2 ADRIAN LE ROY & ROBERT BALLARD, Premier Livre de Chansons a deux parties (1578) in 2 vols. This collection is probably the most interesting and varied of the two-part chanson prints. Particularly to be recommended are Didier Le Blanc's skilful arrangements of chansons by Lassus. Score only . REVISED EDITION IN PREPARATION

RM3 Intavolatura de li Madrigali di Verdelotto* (1536) for voice and lute. This important collection contains twenty-two of Verdelot's most exquisite madrigals arranged fastidiously for voice and lute. It is fact the only surviving publication of its kind, and fills a huge hole in the repertoire for voice and lute. The original four-part versions of these madrigals can be found in our MA3; as the two volumes have been edited in conjunction, it is possible to use the lute part with the ensemble versions. Score only €11.00

RM4 GIUSEPPE GIAMBERTI, Duo tessuti con diversi Solfeggiamenti (1657) for two instruments. These duos, while clearly in the tradition of the Renaissance bicinia, make use of popular dance tunes of the day, such as the Ballo di Mantua and the Aria di Fiorenza. Most intriguing stuff. Score only €9.00

THESAURUS MUSICUS

A series of small anthologies. From January 2004 they are supplied in sets of scores, according to the number of parts (as in the Early Music Library series). Additional scores without covers will still be available at quantity discount rate for those who require more copies than one to a part. All 69 titles have been re-set, and all are now available again.

In addition, we are providing transposed versions of certain titles, where the original versions are somewhat high in pitch, as, for instance in Lechner's beautiful songs (TM14)

- TM1 Seven Canons of the sixteenth century for two equal instruments or voices. Seven intriguing pieces by Layolle, Asola, Brumel, etc. Includes Layolle's warlike piece Les Bourguignons, which was written to celebrate the siege of Pèronne in 1536. €4.50
- TM2 GEORG RHAW, Bicinia Germanica (1545) for two voices or instruments. The first of several selections from Rhaw's classic collection, this presents some skilful arrangements of popular melodies and of Tenorlieder by Hofhaimer and Senfl. €4.50
- TM3 Eight Chansons of the late fifteenth century, for three voices or instruments. These songs, from British Library Add. MS 35087 are nicely varied, ranging from very simple settings of popular melodies to some elegant contrapuntal pieces. €5.50
- TM4 JACOB REGNART, 10 Lieder in Villanella Style for three voices or instruments. Written in imitation of the music of Italian musicians such as Nola. €5.50
- TM5 ORAZIO VECCHI, Seven Canzonette (1585) for four voices or instruments. Vecchi was the leading composer of lighter forms in Italy around 1600, and his canzonette, which were much imitated both in Italy, and in England and Germany, are marvellously fresh and lively works. €7.00
- TM6 Five Quodlibets of the fifteenth century, in four parts. These five pieces, from the Dijon Chansonier, are skilful arrangements of popular melodies: the two inner parts have the melody, while the remaining parts provide lively counterpoints. €7.00
- TM7 Seven Comical Chansons, c. 1530, for four voices or instruments. A collection of bizarre pieces from the prints of Attaignant, one of which is about a headache caused by a nagging partner. €7.00
- TM8 PAUL HOFHAIMER, Seven Tenor Songs, for four voices or instruments. Hofhaimer, a blind organist contemporary with Heinrich Isaac, was one of the leading composers of secular music in Germany around 1500. €7.00
- TM9 LUDOVICO AGOSTINI, Canzoni Napolitane (1574) for five voices or instruments. These are mostly lively pieces, but the selection also includes an attractive parody of Rore's Ancor che col partire. €8.00
- TM10 PHILIP VAN WILDER, Four Chansons, for five voices or instruments. Van Wilder was a Flemish musician at the court of Henry VIII. Two of these pieces are comic, while the others are delicately melancholy. €8.00
- TM11 EUSTACHIO ROMANO, Six Duos (1621) for 2 equal instruments. €4.50
- TM12 JEAN DE CASTRO, Five Chansons for 3 voices or instruments SAT. Witty parodies of well-known pieces by Lassus and others. €5.50

- TM14a Transposed version of above (a 4th lower). Ideal for recorders or viols, or indeed for voices without high sopranos. €7.00
- TM15 THOMAS SIMPSON, Dances (1617) for five instruments. Simpson was one of several distinguished English musicians working on the continent at the beginning of the seventeenth century. The present selection includes pavanes, galliards, courantes, etc. €8.00
- TM16 HANS LEO HASSLER, Intradas and Gagliarda from Lustgarten for six instruments. Even we are amazed at how well this item has sold. But we shouldn't be: the intradas are very attractive, and there is relatively little six-part music of this kind available today. €9.00
- TM17 CHRISTOPH DEMANTIUS, Seven Intradas from Conviviorum Deliciae for six instruments. These lively and varied intradas range from a simple chordal setting of an English ballad tune, "Mother Watkin's Ale", to longer, more rhythmically complex pieces. €8.00
- TM18 GIOVANNI MATTEO ASOLA, Nine Canonic Madrigals for 2 equal voices or instruments €4.50
- TM19 GEORG RHAW, Bicinia Germanica (1545), Selection II, for 2 voices or instruments ST. €4.50
- TM20 LUCA MARENZIO, Twelve Villanelle (1584) for three voices or instruments (SAB). In these pieces from Marenzio's first book of villanelle, the composer turns a basically simple style into something rather surprising, by means of unusual rhythms, and sensitive harmonies. €5.50
- TM21 Capricci and Ricercare for three instruments. This contains a ricercar by Adrian Willaert, an attractive fantasy on La Sol Fa Re Mi by Tiburtino, and some capricci on madrigal themes by Ruffo. €5.50

- TM22 GIACOMO BONZANINI, Sinfonie e Gagliarde from Capricci Musicali (1616) for four instruments. These simple, rhythmically lively pieces, somewhat similar to those of Salamone Rossi, are suitable for a wide range of instruments. €7.00
- TM23 Dutch Songs (1572), for four voices and instruments ATTB. This is the first of two selections from Phalèse's Een Duytsch Musyck Boeck of 1572. Particularly to be recommended are the songs of Clemens non Papa included here. €7.00
- TM24 WILLIAM BRADE, Pavans and Galliards (1607) for five instruments. Brade was one of the finest composers of stylised dance music of his time: his pavans in particular take the form far beyond its simple origins. These pieces come from the Füllsack-Hildebrand anthology of 1607. €8.00
- TM25 JOHANNES GHRO, Six Intradas (1601) for five instruments. These simple, direct pieces sound very fine on a consort of wind instruments. €8.00
- TM26 HANS LEO HASSLER, Six Lieder from Lustgarten (1601) for five voices or instruments. Within a basically simple style, Hassler manages to produce quite varied pieces: these songs are predominantly lively, but two of them, Ach, Weh! des Leiden, and Mein Gmüth ist mir verwirret are distinguished by an exquisite melancholy. €8.00
- TM27 GERARD TURNHOUT, Eight Chansons (1571), for two voices or instruments. These are clever arrangements of well-known pieces of the time, such as Mon cœur se recommande a vous (Lassus), Je suis desheritee (Cadéac), and Belle, donnez moy un regard (Crecquillon). €4.50
- TM28 HEINRICH ISAAC, Italian Songs, for three voices or instruments. Isaac's pieces to texts by Lorenzo de' Medici and Poliziano are among the finest examples of the Florentine style of the late fifteenth century. €5.50
- TM29 Music from the Glogauer Liederbuch, Selection I, for three instruments. These are mostly lively pieces with a great deal of rhythmic vitality, though not all are as eccentric as the notorious Dy Katzenphote. €5.50
- TM30 COSTANZO ANTEGNATI, Five Canzoni, for four instruments. Antegnati was an organist at Brescia. These pieces from the Woltz tablature of 1617, are good examples of canzoni da sonar that are interesting musically without being too difficult to play. €7.00
- TM31 Five Italian Fantasias for four instruments. These comparatively simple, but very elegant contrapuntal pieces by Giulio Segni, Willaert and others, sound particularly fine on consorts of recorders or viols. €7.00
- TM32 WILLIAM BRADE, Nine Masque Dances (1617), for five instruments. Somewhat similar to Adson's Courty Masquing Ayres, though a little more polished, Brade's pieces provide satisfying polyphonic settings of some of the more popular masque tunes of the period. €8.00
- TM33 VICENZO FONTANA, Nine Villanelle for three voices or instruments. Fontana was one of the earliest composers to write villanelle—simple songs in a semi-popular style: his pieces were evidently highly regarded, as they were frequently arranged by other musicians, among them Lassus. €5.50
- TM35 NINOT LE PETIT, Five Chansons (ca. 1500) for four voices or instruments. Ninot was one of the more interesting composers of chansons rustiques—pieces, usually comic or at least light in character, that made use of popular songs of the day. €7.00
- TM36 ROLAND DE LASSUS, Five Lieder for four voices or instruments SATB. Lassus had a unique ability to compose convincingly in every style of his time, with the result that his German songs are far more inventive than those of most of his contemporaries. €7.00

- TM37 GIACOMO GASTOLDI, Eight Balletti (1596) for five voices or instruments. This, together with TM45, presents all of Gastoldi's five-part balletti, classics of Renaissance light music. They were imitated by musicians in many parts of Europe, notably by Thomas Morley in England ("Now is the month of Maying"), and Hassler in Germany. €8.00
- TM38 ORAZIO VECCHI, Songs and Dances from Selva di Varie Recreatione (1590) for four/five voices or instruments. Vecchi's Selva is a remarkable collection that sets out to include examples of every kind of secular music of the time. €8.00
- TM39 JOHANN HERMANN SCHEIN, Suites 6 + 12 from *Banchetto Musicale for 5 instruments €8.00
- TM40 MELCHIOR FRANCK, Five Intradas for six instruments. We were bowled over by these when we came across them. Franck takes the intrada far beyond its simple origins. Excellent material for any wind group, or for mixtures of wind and strings. €8.00

- TM41 GIOVAN DOMENICO DA NOLA, Nine Villanelle for three voices or instruments. Nola was the first musician to really cultivate the villanella alla napoletana, and his lively pieces were imitated by many famous composers. This selection includes Chi la gagliarda and the bizarre Medici nui siamo. €5.50
- TM42 ADRIAN WILLAERT, Five Villanelle for four voices or instruments ATTB. Willaert greatly extended the scope of the villanella by original harmonic and rhythmic writing. This selection includes Madonna mia fa and the lovely O bene mio fa. €7.00
- TM43 WILLIAM BRADE, Ten Dances (1617) for five instruments. This selection contains some of the simpler pieces,—almain, courantes, etc. from the 1617 collection. €8.00
- TM45 GIACOMO GASTOLDI, Seven Balletti (1596) for five voices or instruments (SSATB). This selection includes the lovely Queste dolce sirena. €8.00

- TM46 CHRISTOPH DEMANTIUS, Eleven Dances (1608) for six instruments. This selection of galliards and duple-time dances includes some English ballads. €8.00
- TM47 Five Dutch Songs (1572) for four voices or instruments SATB. More songs from Phalèse's Een Duytsch Musyck Boeck of 1572. €7.00
- TM48 Antoine Busnois, Six Quodlibets for four voices or instruments. Like the pieces in TM6, these songs wittily combine different popular melodies of the day. €7.00
- TM49 ADRIAN WILLAERT, Four Villanelle for four voices or instruments SATB. More from the same source as TM42, including Un giorno mi pregò una vedovella. €7.00
- TM50 FILIPPO AZZAILOLO, Six Villotte for four voices or instruments ATTB. Includes Chi passa and Gentil madonna. Some of Azzaiolo's songs were known all over Europe; Chi passa was arranged by Byrd. €7.00
- TM51 English Ballad Tunes (c. 1600) in polyphonic settings for four/five instruments. Includes arrangements by Praetorius, Haussmann, Wigthorpe and others of tunes such as "Light of love", "Daphne", "Roland", "Packington's Pound" etc. €8.00
- TM52 GIOVANNI MARIA TRABACI, Five Galliards (1615) for five instruments. Strikingly original, harmonically rich pieces. Trabaci is very free in his notion of a galliard, like Brade with the pavane. €8.00
- TM53 ORAZIO VECCHI, Five Canzonette (1596) for six voices or instruments. These pieces are refreshingly varied in texture, making them ideal for wind instruments, or for voices and instruments. €9.00
- TM54 MELCHIOR FRANCK, Seven Intradas for six instruments. Like the pieces found in TM40, these are remarkable fine examples of the form. €9.00
- TM55 PAUL HOFHAIMER, Seven Pieces for three voices or instruments. A varied selection of works, some comic, some melancholy, by this master of his time. €5.50
- TM56 Comical Chansons for four voices or instruments. Works by Certon, Janequin, etc., all most diverting. €7.00
- TM57 Filippo Azzaiolo. Five Villotte for four voices or instruments SATB. This further selection from Azzaiolo includes the earliest setting of the famous "Girometta" melody, and some Napolitane. €7.00
- TM58 HANS LEO HASSLER, Seven Lieder for four voices or instruments. Dance songs, short madrigal-like pieces and canzonette—each one a winner. €7.00
- TM59 LUDOVICO AGOSTINI, Canzoni Napolitane (1574) for five voices or instruments. €8.00
- TM60 THOMAS SIMPSON, Pavans and Galliards from Opusculum (1610) for five instruments. These are exceptionally well-crafted pieces, somewhat similar to those of Willam Brade. €8.00
- TM61 WILLIAM BRADE, Pavans and Galliards (1614) for six instruments. Brade's 6-part pieces are even better than his 5-part ones, with their attractive interplay between the two upper voices. Rich, satisfying stuff. €9.00
- TM62 VALENTIN HAUSSMANN, Five Intradas for six instruments. these relatively easy pieces are ideal for almost any combination of wind instruments. €9.50
- TM63 THOMAS MORLEY, Five Balletts for five voices or instruments. Morley's Balletts are, of course, very well-known. But modern editions have treated them as "choral" music, rather than music that can be performed on a mixture of voices and instruments. There are no turning problems in our edition! €8.00
- TM64 THOMAS MORLEY, Five Balletts for five voices or instruments (voices). It is really astonishing how Schein manages to achieve such originality in short pieces like these. €8.00
- TM68 THOMAS MORLEY, Balletts, Selection II for five voices or instruments. Contains Shoot, false Love, Now is the month of Maying, My bonny lass she smileth, Those dainty daffadillies and I love, alas, I love thee. €8.00
- TM69 MICHAEL PRAETORIUS, Passamezzos and Galliards from Terpsichore for five or six instruments. Some of these wonderful settings are by Francisque Caroubel, a French dancing-master who visited Praetorius' home town in 1610. These are simply the most perfect examples of their kind. €9.50
- TM70 Twelve Dances from the Philidor Collection (F. 494) for five and six instruments. The Philidor Collection was written down in the 1670s, but it includes repertoire of the royal wind band in Paris from around 1600. Several of these pieces were written for special occasions, such as royal weddings. €9.00

VENETIAN INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC c. 1600

Around 1600 in Venice and other north Italian centres new types of ensemble music emerged, exploring among other things the use of polychoral techniques. But see also our series of the complete instrumental works of the Gabriellis

- VM1 GOVANNI GABRIELI, Canzon Prima (1615) for five instruments with optional continuo. The set of parts covers strings (VnVnVaVaVc or viols TrTrTTB) or recorders (SATB). Score and parts €4.50
- VM2 GOVANNI GABRIELI, Canzon XII (1615) for eight instruments in two choirs (SATB/SATB). Replaced by GAB 30 (see p. 12)
- VM3 ANDREA GABRIELI, Ricercar for eight instruments. Score and parts €5.50
- VM5 GIOSEFFO GUAMI, La Lucchesina for eight instruments in two choirs (ATTB/ATTB) with optional continuo. Guami was one of the leading composers of instrumental music at the end of the sixteenth century. La Lucchesina is an attractive piece that is lively rhythmically without being too hard to play; the fairly limited compass of the parts makes it suitable for a wider range of wind instruments, including recorders, cornets, dulcians, trombones, even crumhorns. Score and parts €5.50
- VM6 FIORENZO MASCHERA, Four Canzoni (1582) for four instruments SATB. Maschera was one of the first composers to publish instrumental canzoni. His pieces were evidently very popular during his lifetime, to judge by the number of surviving arrangements in which they are found. Our edition includes parts supplied for strings (VnVnVaVc or VnVaVaVc or viols) or recorders (SATB). Score and parts €7.00
- VM7 FIORENZO MASCHERA, Five Canzoni (1582) for four instruments SATB. Score and parts €7.00
- VM8 FLORIANO CANALI, La Balzana for eight instruments in two choirs. This substantial piece is based on the famous "Aria del Gran Duca". The shifting sonorities in the two choirs make this a richly satisfying work for wind or string instruments. Score and parts €5.50
- VM9 FLORIANO CANALI, Four Canzoni (1600), for four instruments (recorders ATTB, viols TrTTB/TTBB etc.). Canali's pieces are interesting to play, without being technically demanding. Score and parts €7.00
- VM10 FLORIANO CANALI, Four Canzoni (1600), for four instruments (VnVaVaVc or recorders SAAT/SSAT). These pieces are quite different in mood from those in volume 9; they are much more bright and extrovert. Score and parts €7.00
- VM11 CESARIO GUSSAGO, Five Sonatas (1608) for four instruments (VnVnVaVc or VnVnVnVa, or cornets and trombones, or recorders SAAT/SSAT). Gussago excelled at broad, sonorous pieces full of nice chord changes. Score and parts €7.00
- VM12 CESARIO GUSSAGO, Two Sonatas (1608) for six instruments. Much of the time in these pieces the six parts are divided into two groups of three, producing something of the effect of a double-choir piece. Particularly effective on recorders and viols. Score and parts €5.50
- VM12a set of transposed parts (a 4th lower: SSATTB), €3.00
- VM13 CESARIO GUSSAGO, Two Sonatas (1608) for eight instruments in two choirs (SAAT/ATTB). Gussago's simple but effective scoring makes his works a great pleasure to play on almost any combination of instruments (recorders, viols, violin family, cornets, trombones, dulcians, etc.). Score and parts €6.00
- VM14 CESARIO GUSSAGO, L'Onofria (1608) for eight instruments in two equal choirs (SAAT/SAAT). Score and parts €5.50
- VM15 ADRIAN BANCHIERI & AURELIO BONELLI, Twelve Canzoni for four instruments. These short, but by no means insubstantial, canzoni are particularly suitable for wind instruments. Score only €5.50
- VM16 CLAUDIO MERULO, Fourteen Canzoni for four instruments. This volume contains most of Merulo's surviving instrumental pieces in ensemble form, taken from a variety of sources. Merulo was one of the first important composers to write instrumental canzoni: his pieces are elegant and carefully crafted, but short and to the point. Score only €7.00

- VM17 CLAUDIOMERULO, Three Canzoni, for five instruments. Score and parts €5.50
- VM18 LUIGI MAZZI, Ricercar and Canzon (1596) for four instruments SATB. The lively and rhythmic canzon contrasts nicely with the more elegant and restrained ricercar. Score and parts €3.503.75
- VM19 FLORIANO CANALI, Battaglia Francese for four instruments (ATTB). Score and parts €6.00
- VM19a Alternative set of parts up a fifth (SSAT) €3.00
- VM20 LUDOVICO GROSSI DA VIADANA, Sinfonia "La Bergamasca" for 8 instruments in 2 choirs. Score and parts €5.50
- VM25 COSTANZO PORTA, Girometta for eight instruments in two choirs (ATTB/ATTB). This is a rich, extended setting of a famous popular tune of the day. Score and parts €5.50

 COMPLETE COLLECTIONS IN PRE-
SENTATION SETS

- AH1 ANTHONY HOLBORNE, Pavans, Galliards & Almains (1599), for five instruments (recorders, viols, violin family, cornetts and sackbuts, etc.). Our complete edition of this classic collection of 65 elegant stylised dances is provided with a set of alternative parts to cover both wind and stringed instruments. Each partbook has its own stiff cover, and the whole comes in an elegant slipcase. Score and complete set of parts €50.00
- TS1 THOMAS SIMPSON, Taffel-Consort (1621) for four instruments with optional continuo. Simpson's collection contains a great variety of different kinds of music both by English composers (Dowland, Webster, Peter Phillips, Alfonso Ferrabosco, Robert Bateman, Robert Johnson and Simpson himself) and by German colleagues of Simpson, who spent much of his career in north Germany. There are pavans, galliards, almains, masque dances, courantes, voltas, and intriguing pieces called arias; but a special feature is the inclusion of some really substantial works, such as Thomas Simpson's lively reworking of the melody "Bonny sweet Robin". Taffel-consort was one of the earliest collections of its kind to be provided with a continuo. But in practice the music is actually complete without the continuo, so this can be regarded as a bonus rather than an obstacle. A few pieces from the collection are already available, but the bulk of the music is now in print for the first time since 1621. Score and complete set of parts €45.00
- WB1 WILLIAM BRADE, Pavans and Galliards (1609). A varied collection of dances and canzonas. This magnificent collection, well-known from the recording by Hesperion XX, is quite varied in content, with canzonas as well as Pavans almains, galliards and other dances. Score and complete set of parts €50.00

 THE KEYBOARD REPERTOIRE

- EK4 Music from the Buxheim Organ Book, Volume I. This contains most of the elaborate settings of basse-danse melodies from the most important source of fifteenth-century keyboard music, as well as intabulations of songs by Dufay, Binchois, Robert Morton and others. REVISED EDITION IN PREPARATION
- EK4a French Songs of the Fifteenth Century, for three voices or instruments. This volume contains the original polyphonic versions of the songs that appear in intabulations in the above volume; some of the finest pieces of the period are found here, such as Dufay's Se la face ay pale, Frye's Tout a par moy, and the anonymous J'ay pris amours. €5.00
- EK14 PIERRE ATTAINGNANT, Quatorze Gaillardes, neuf pavennes, sept branles et deux basse dances (1531). A complete edition of this important collection of dances in both French and Italian styles. €7.00
- EK18a Three Chansons (1572-1575), for five voices or instruments. The three pieces arranged by Valente are Willaert's Qu'il la dira, Crecquillon's Pis ne me peult venir, and Philip de Monte's Sortez, mes pleurs.
- EK27 CLAUDIO MERULO, Libro Secondo di canzoni (1606). The most remarkable feature of Merulo's keyboard music is that ornamentation of a really subtle kind is actually written out in great detail, thus providing us with one of the most important documents of performance practice in Venice around 1600. As we have already published the unadorned ensemble versions of some of these pieces (see VM16), there is an opportunity to compare both versions. This volume also has an appendix containing additional canzoni by Merulo from the Torino tablatures. IN PREPARATION

LPM NUMBERED EDITIONS
